

CENTAURI ARTS

Creative Writing Retreat

offered in partnership with Las Cascadas Boutique Hotel, Quepos, Costa Rica

Saturday 19th to Saturday 26th January 2025

Imagine writing in a hammock overlooking pristine rainforest, with the Pacific Ocean sparkling below. Picture yourself taking workshops on a lovely veranda, surrounded by tropical gardens, or reading on a terrace where scarlet macaws nest and monkeys are regular visitors.

Welcome to our 11th Costa Rica Creative Writing Retreat, taking place at a brand new location: Las Cascadas Boutique Hotel, close to Manuel Antonio National Park.

About Las Cascadas

Las Cascadas (The Falls) Boutique Hotel is located in rainforest, just a 5 minute walk from the new Marina which has several restaurants and coffee shops for our writers. A further 5 minute walk takes you into Quepos, with more restaurants and gorgeous sunset views over the ocean. We are 10 minutes by bus or taxi from Manuel Antonio, Costa Rica's most famous National Park.

The hotel has a lovely pool, a bar that serves amazing cocktails and a small restaurant. Las Cascadas is family-owned, ensuring the friendly atmosphere that has become a valued feature of all our writing retreats. In addition to the pool area, the hotel offers writers other spectacular areas in which to relax or write, such as "The Hammock" terrace, where you can also watch the scarlet macaws that nest on the property.

Las Cascadas is visited regularly by squirrel monkeys, toucans, sloths and exotic tropical birds. You can read more about our hotel here:

Accommodation, Food and Transportation

At Las Cascadas, writers can choose between private or shared bedrooms with AC and Wifi. We are holding 2 private rooms for couples or male writers, as well as 2 x 2-bedroom cottages and 'Casa Cascadas', a spacious 3-bedroom cottage. All three of our cottages feature indoor and outdoor seating areas, newly renovated bathrooms, kitchens and lovely views over rainforest and tropical gardens. The 3-bedroom cottage is very large, and will be our shared base during writing periods, since it boasts both a huge outdoor terrace, and an indoor, air-conditioned dining area large enough for all of us. A modest breakfast is offered free of charge in the restaurant, or you can choose to cook for yourself. Lunch and dinner can be prepared by you in the well stocked kitchens, enjoyed in the on-site restaurant, or we can walk to the marina and town for endless options.

Las Cascadas is located a pleasant 2.5 hour drive south of the international airport at San Jose. Our group will meet at the airport at around 4pm on the first day, travelling by air-conditioned minibus to our hotel. We will depart together after breakfast on the final day. Since this writing retreat is not an all-inclusive package, writers can either take advantage of our airport transfer, sharing the costs with other writers, or make their own arrangements - something that will be attractive if this retreat is part of a longer holiday in Costa Rica.

Come Solo, or with Family or Friends

Almost all our writers attend on their own, forming close bonds with other writers during our week. If you wish to share a room with another writer to half your costs, this can often be arranged. Writers attending with a partner will be housed in a private unit close to our 3-bedroom cottage. Please call to discuss options for accommodation, if you wish to attend with others.

Creative Writing Workshops

Our writing workshops take place on the lovely terrace outside Casa Cascadas, and feature prompts and techniques applicable to writers interested in memoir, short fiction, plays, poetry and novels. Beginning writers are welcome, as well as writers with experience. We accept only a small number of participants (7-10 writers per retreat) so we can easily adapt to meet your needs. Each writing retreat includes 6 workshops of 2-3 hours in length, mostly held in the mornings. Workshops may focus on plot, character, sources of inspiration, descriptive writing, poetry, editing strategies and the business of writing. Workshops feature all-new content each time we run a retreat, so many writers join us year after year.

In addition to our writing workshops, your week will include informal critiquing sessions, evening social events and additional writing-related activities as requested by the group. Our retreats conclude with a celebratory evening during which writers are invited to share their work with the group.

For writers with a project in progress, solo consultations are available at an additional fee. Please contact us for details.

Local Attractions

If you need a break from your writing, there is so much to do nearby! While most writing workshops take place in the morning, we will offer our class to the afternoon on one of our days, so writers have the option to depart very early with a nature guide for the nearby Manuel Antonio National Park. You'll be in the park shortly after dawn – the best time to view nature! Manuel Antonio is home to 3 species of monkeys as well as 2-toed sloths, iguanas, basilisks, and 184 species of birds! You may even see dolphins from the pristine beaches. At the end of your nature tour, you have the option of remaining in the park to enjoy the beaches or nature trails.

Other nearby attractions include the local town of Quepos, as well as kayaking in the mangroves, zip lining, bird watching, snorkelling, a waterfall walk and a sunset catamaran trip. All sightseeing can be arranged for you, by the hotel, and writers often save money by sharing the cost of taxis and tours..
